DISCOVER BRITTEN:WAR REQUIEM

choral workshop led by
Music Director
Matthew Willis

SATURDAY 5th MAY 2018

2pm to 6.30pm
in

The Recital Room, Tonbridge School

Price £20 per person (including tea coffee & cake!)

Tonbridge Philharmonic Society will be performing the War Requiem on 24th November 2018 in Tonbridge School Chapel, so come for a taster of Britten's masterpiece which was commissioned in 1961 to mark the consecration of the new Coventry Cathedral, the original 14th century building having been destroyed by a World War II bomb.

The Requiem's original Latin texts are interspersed with nine poems about war by Wilfred Owen who tragically was killed in action in France one hundred years ago on 4th November 1918, exactly one week before Armistice.

Scored for mixed choir, full orchestra, chamber orchestra, boys' choir, organ and 3 soloists, this will be a spectacular and ambitious concert, so for the small price of £20 do make the most of this workshop opportunity and invite all your singing friends to participate!
